ACTION
TAKEN:

MA PREM HAYSA related information to Special Agent [REDACTED] regarding her knowledge the alleged bugging and wiretapping, for detailed information regarding this portion of the interview refer to report submitted by Special Agent [REDACTED].

The writer interviewed MA PREM HAYSA regarding the alleged poisoning of her husband, [REDACTED] she related that on July 6, 1985, she had been involved in filming some background scenery for a movie project in which she was involved with some other persons. She advised that she then went to the restaurant in Rajneeshpuram, where she was notified by phone, that [REDACTED] had become quite ill and that she should contact him at the Pythagorius Medical Center. She advised that she contacted her husband there and that at time of contact he seemed very frantic and advised her that he had received a shot in the buttocks. She advised that [REDACTED] was present at the medical and repeatedly attempted to restrict her entrance into the room where [REDACTED] was being cared for. She advised that when he became stable, [REDACTED] was transported by ambulance to the airport for air evacuation to St. Charles Hospital in Bend. She advised that during the course of the ambulance ride a stop was made at the pharmacy in Rajneeshpuram to obtain a prescription, at which time, [REDACTED] expressed a concern that the vial containing same be an unopened one, indicating that he feared that someone may tamper with the medication.

MA PREM HAYSA advised that later in the day on her arrival at the St. Charles Medical Center that her husband was in the intensive care facility. She advised that she joined him in his room, at which time, [REDACTED] expressed a fear of women being sent in by [REDACTED] to kill him. She advised that [REDACTED] showed her the puncture wound resulting from the poison injection, which she recalled as being on left buttock. She advised that in compliance with her husband's fears she blocked the door to the intensive care room with a heavy chair and slept there at night. She advised that during this time period [REDACTED] told her that he had been seated in the religious hall, at the northern end where the musician's perform, observing a portion of the ongoing festival that he was approached from behind by [REDACTED] and another person whose name MA PREM HAYSA could not recall. As [REDACTED] and the other person flanked him on both sides from behind he felt the pain of a needle being inserted into his buttock, as this occurred he simultaneously experienced a chemical taste that he then stood up and began to make his way out of the religious hall. That as he passed [REDACTED] on his way out he whispered to her something to the effect that he had been poisoned. MA PREM HAYSA advised that in her opinion [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were "Clones" of [REDACTED]. That these two women were quite closely associated with [REDACTED] and loyal to her.

and was always seated him at that particular table. After awhile he noticed that it became common to see [ ] and [ ] sitting nearby. [ ] states that the "Hollywood group" ate together at the restaurant. Normally that included ~~Mr HASYA~~, [ ], [ ], [ ], [ ] and [ ] himself.

[ ] states that the "Hollywood group" had originally taken up residence at Rajneeshpuram in 1982. Due to pressures from [ ] and degrading treatment, the "Hollywood group" left the commune after only three months. In October of 1983, the "Hollywood group" returned to take up residence at Rajneeshpuram. [ ] stated that during [ ] administration, Rajneeshpuram was not a city of love but rather a city of fear. [ ] hated the "Hollywood group" and the Lau Tzu house. The Lau Tzu house are the people that surround BHAGWAN. [ ] particularly hated [ ] who is the BHAGWAN'S "caretaker." [ ] is also a close friend of HASYA. When HASYA started doing research for a movie she was producing, she and [ ] became even closer. [ ] was writing the screenplay for the movie and [ ] became particularly interested in working with [ ] on the screenplay. [ ] recalls [ ] trembling in rage because the "Hollywood group" was getting close to the Lau Tzu group, and to the BHAGWAN through [ ]

[ ] commented that [ ] hated [ ] and considered [ ] medically insane. She expressed that she felt [ ] wanted to do harm to the BHAGWAN. When HASYA married [ ] even more animosity was felt by [ ] toward the "Hollywood group."

Regarding possible poisoning, [ ] commented that toward the end of last summer (1984) he began to experience headaches, a feeling of weakness, watery burning eyes, and agony he associated with allergies. [ ] went to the Rajneesh medical clinic and contacted Dr. [ ] who prescribed antihistamines for him. The prescription was taken to the pharmacy and filled. The pharmacist filling the prescription was [ ] [ ] took the pills but commented that his condition got worse and that he got sicker and sicker and weaker and weaker. When he stopped taking the pills, his condition got better. ILL

[ ] commented that there were many days when the "Hollywood group" suffered from dizziness and comments were made among them that they felt like they were doped. HASYA was the person most affected by the dizziness and drugged feeling.

[ ] was asked if his Rolls Royce had ever been taken to Jesus Grove. He advised that it had been, but that it was not unusual. He stated that he would drop off his Rolls Royce at Jesus Grove where the vehicle would be washed. He would then pick up the vehicle later in the day. [ ] commented that there was one unusual condition surrounding this washing of his car which occurred last winter (December or January). [ ] telephoned [ ] and asked him if he wanted his car washed. Prior to that time [ ] had a great deal of difficulty getting anyone to wash his vehicle and when they did they charged him for it. He states there was no charge after [ ] started calling him to wash the car. [ ] states that the persons washing the car were not allowed to drive it, but on one occasion his girlfriend, [ ], observed [ ] driving it around Rajneeshpuram.

[ ] commented that he did not believe [ ] at the time and later in the day picked his vehicle up in the area of the car wash. [ ] states there was a second incident involving the washing of his vehicle which occurred in February or March of 1985. He had dropped his vehicle off at 9 a.m. and when he went to pick it up it was not there. He later found that [ ] and [ ] had delivered it to an area thought to be convenient for [ ] [ ] stated that his vehicle is a 1981 Rolls Camarque.

[ ] was asked if he had ever been troubled by spiders or snakes while at the ranch. [ ] stated that during the winter of 1984, while residing at Alan Watts A-14 in Room 2, he suffered multiple spider bites. [ ] indicated that some of the more severe bites were on his upper arm and described them as welts which were hard and reddened and extremely painful. [ ] states he caught a number of the spiders and killed them. He said the spiders looked like the little Brown Recluse spiders; the coloring was medium to dark brown. The presence of the spiders being in his residence became so frequent that he routinely checked his bedding prior to retiring for the spiders. On a number of occasions when he drew back the sheets the spiders were between the sheets. [ ] states that the appearance of the spiders was sudden and unexplainable. With regard to snakes, [ ] states that when he and [ ] moved into Muhamad I (phonetic), he did observe what he believed to be rattlesnakes under that residence. He states that at least three times he observed the snakes, but it could have been the same snake.

[ ] was asked if he recalled any personal papers or financial statements ever being stolen from him while at the ranch. [ ] stated that in the early spring of 1985 (believed to be February or March of 1985) he was asked a question pertaining to financial records by his accountant. [ ] states he kept his personal financial records, and the records of [ ] (phonetic), under his A-frame residence in Alan Watts. [ ] explained that [ ] was with the Rajneesh commune in Los Angeles. [ ] states that the records were kept in a metal box and in a cardboard box both of which included tax receipts and records of [ ] and his own personal records.

When [ ] attempted to locate the records under his A-frame, he discovered that they were missing. [ ] immediately started looking for his records and contacted [ ] and [ ]. He states they were calm and they told him they would take care of it and attempted to locate them. They advised [ ] to call the maintenance people at the ranch and determine whether they had picked up the records. [ ] did this and found that the maintenance people had never hauled anything away from his A-frame. [ ] states that approximately two months later, [ ] contacted him and advised that she had found the cardboard and metal box of records sitting out at Rudigosh Warehouse.

[ ] was asked why anyone would want to steal his records by investigators and he stated it was probably due to them (referring to [ ] and her group) trying to get some dirt on him. He stated that [ ] at one time, had been testing him to determine whether she could get along with him or not. He states [ ] told him that her method of dealing with people was to get "shit" on them. [ ] had told [ ] that she knew how to win a fight and could always find something to destroy a person with.

Regarding the electronic eavesdropping of conversations, [ ] advised that there were a number of times he was convinced [ ] was taping his conversations with friends. [ ] commented that whenever derogatory things were said about [ ], or things she had done, she would exhibit a change in attitude following that conversation.

[ ] was asked if he patronized the mall restaurant and he stated that he did and that the frequency was approximately two times per day. [ ] was asked who normally served him at the restaurant and he advised that [ ] seated him frequently. Two others also seated [ ] occasionally and those names were given as [ ] and [ ]. [ ] states he liked one table
